FOREST AVENUE HIGH SCHOOL

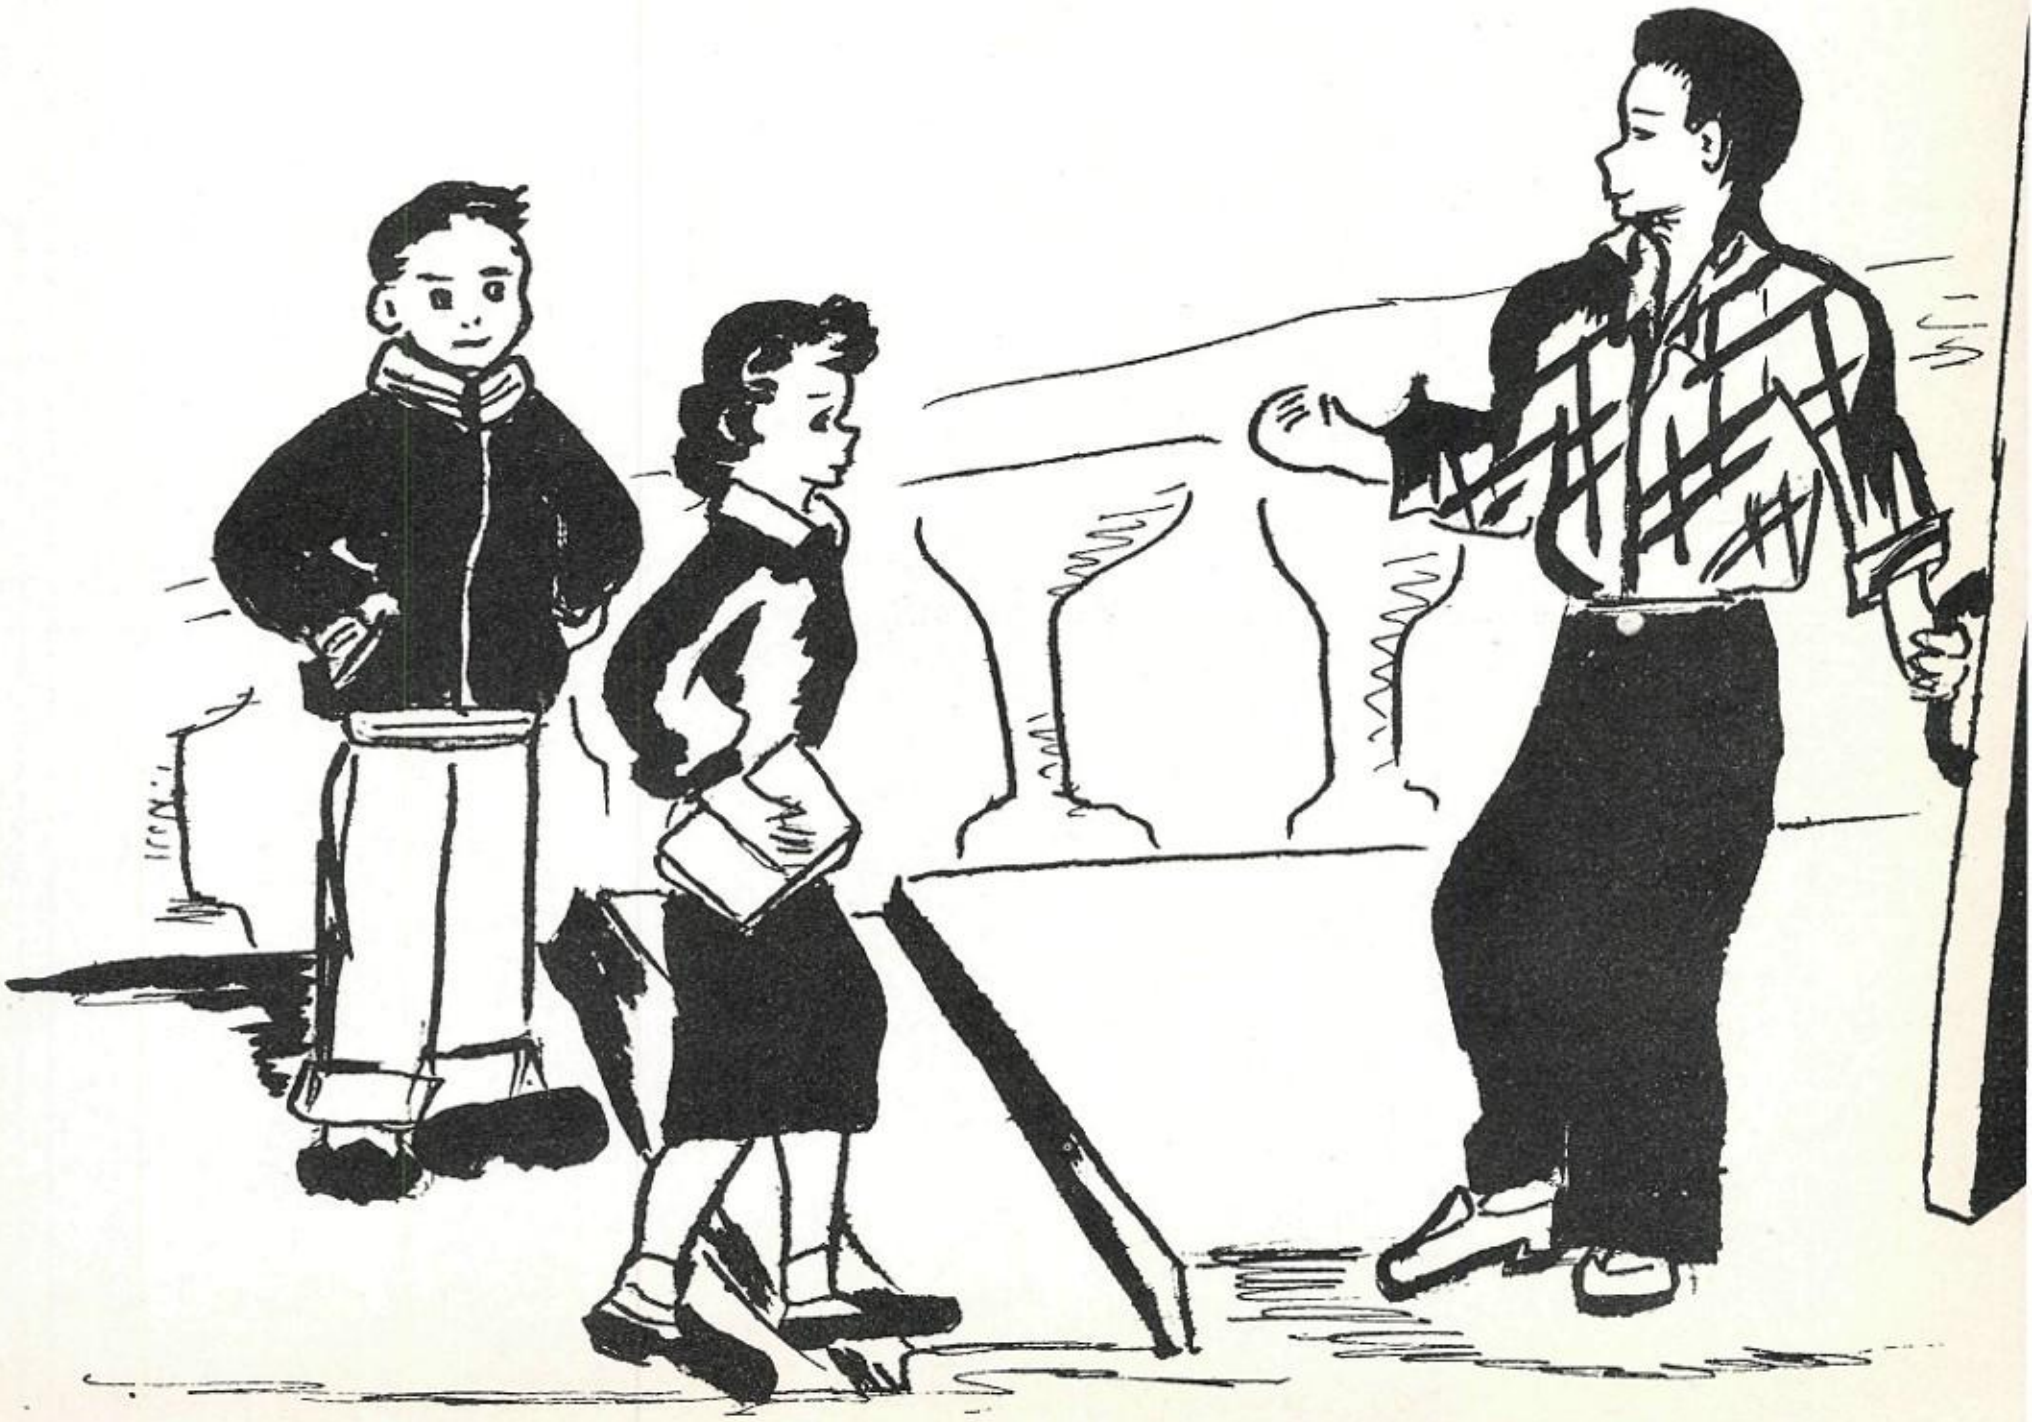
Dallas, Texas

DEDICATION

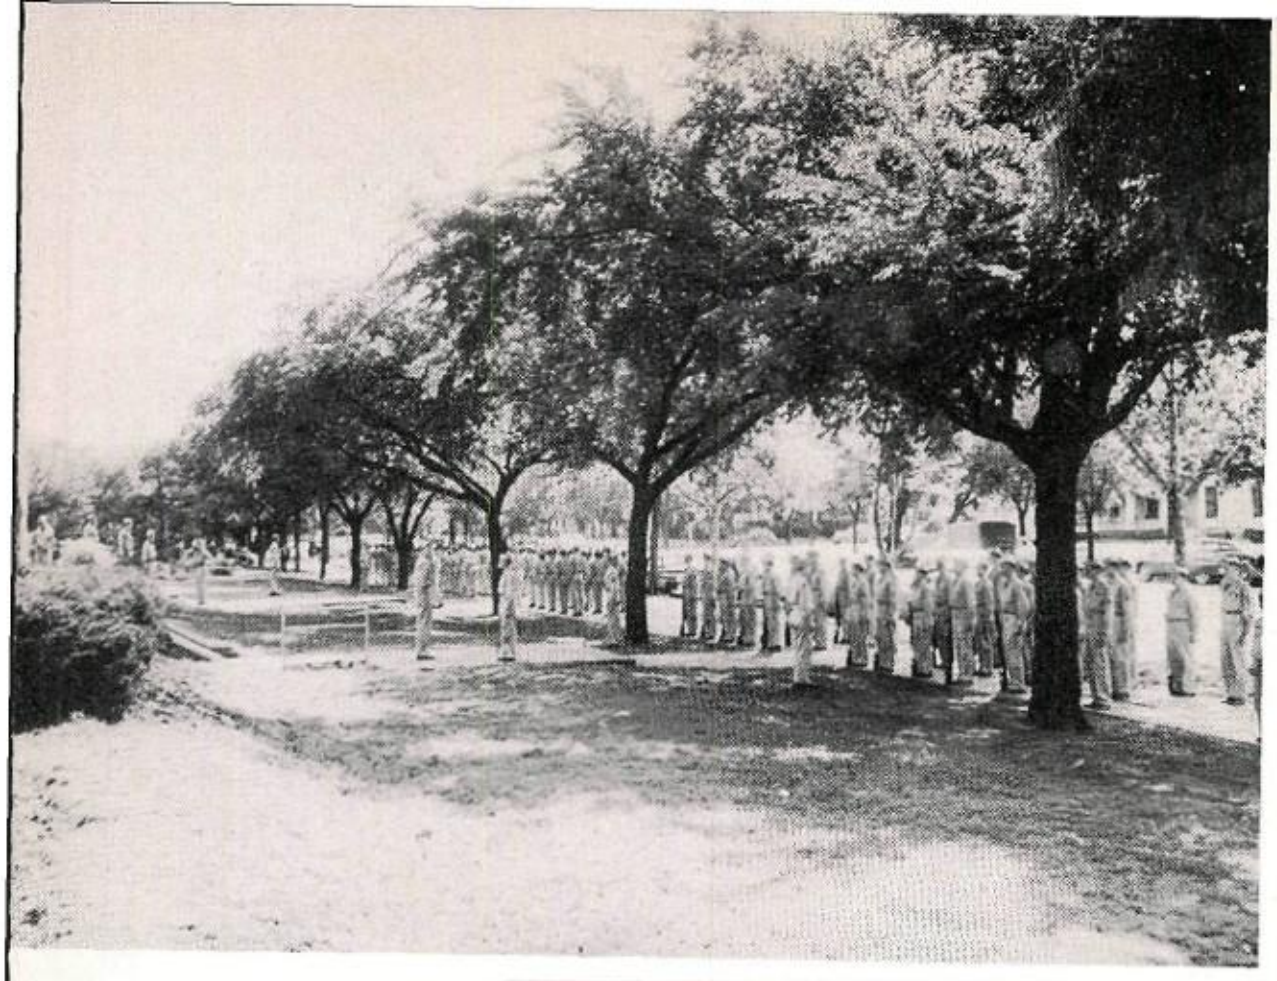
To the Junior Division of Forest, the staff affectionately dedicates this edition of the Forester. Your coming has brought, along with many material improvements, enthusiasm, which makes a vital contribution to our school. Your competent teachers quickly and smoothly found a place on Forest's able faculty. We are glad to call you fellow students, and we are proud of the progress which you have helped us to make in 1951-52. As Dallas' only five-year high school, Forest now occupies a unique place in educational circles. Because of you we can point with greater pride to our alma mater.

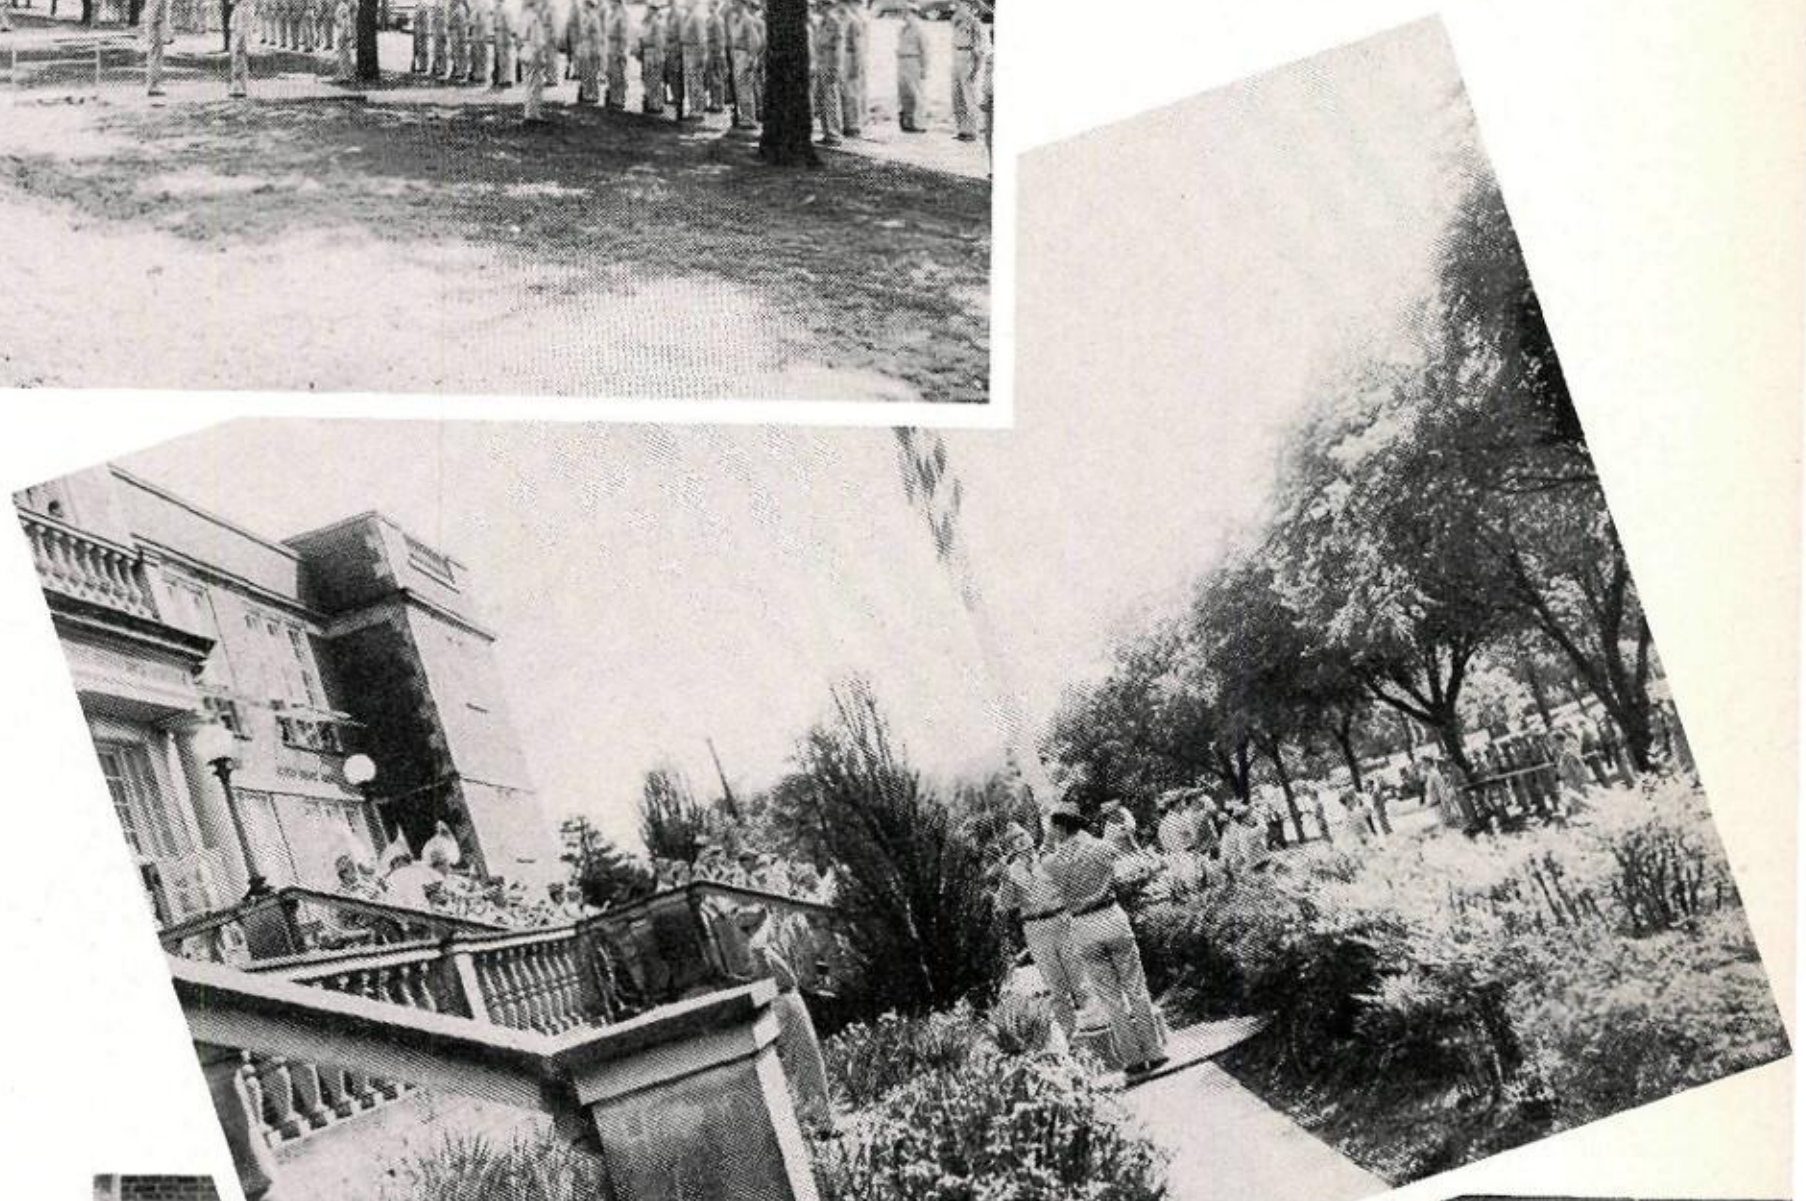
FOREWORD

This is the story of Forest in one of her greatest years. There is laughter here, and there is seriousness. There are losses and there are victories. There are seniors and there are the little cubs on their way to class or lunch or assembly. It is all here, and it is the sincere wish of the staff that in a measure this book will capture and hold for you moments that each will treasure in a special way. We have tried to show you our school through the eyes of our "littlest Lions."

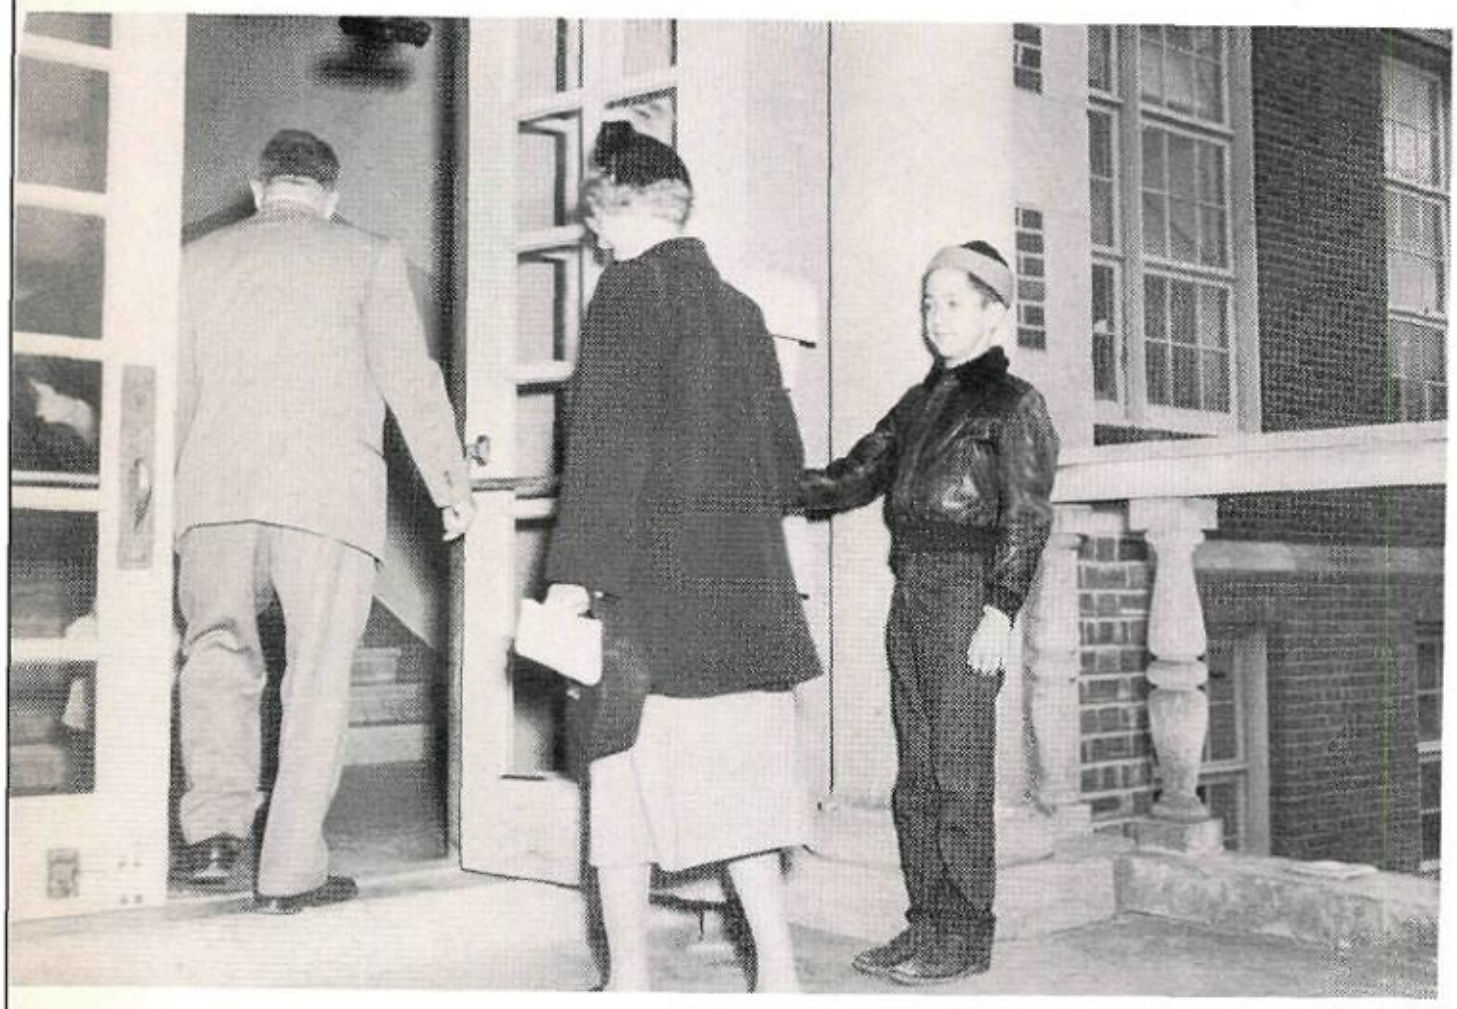


FOREST AVENUE HIGH SCHOOL

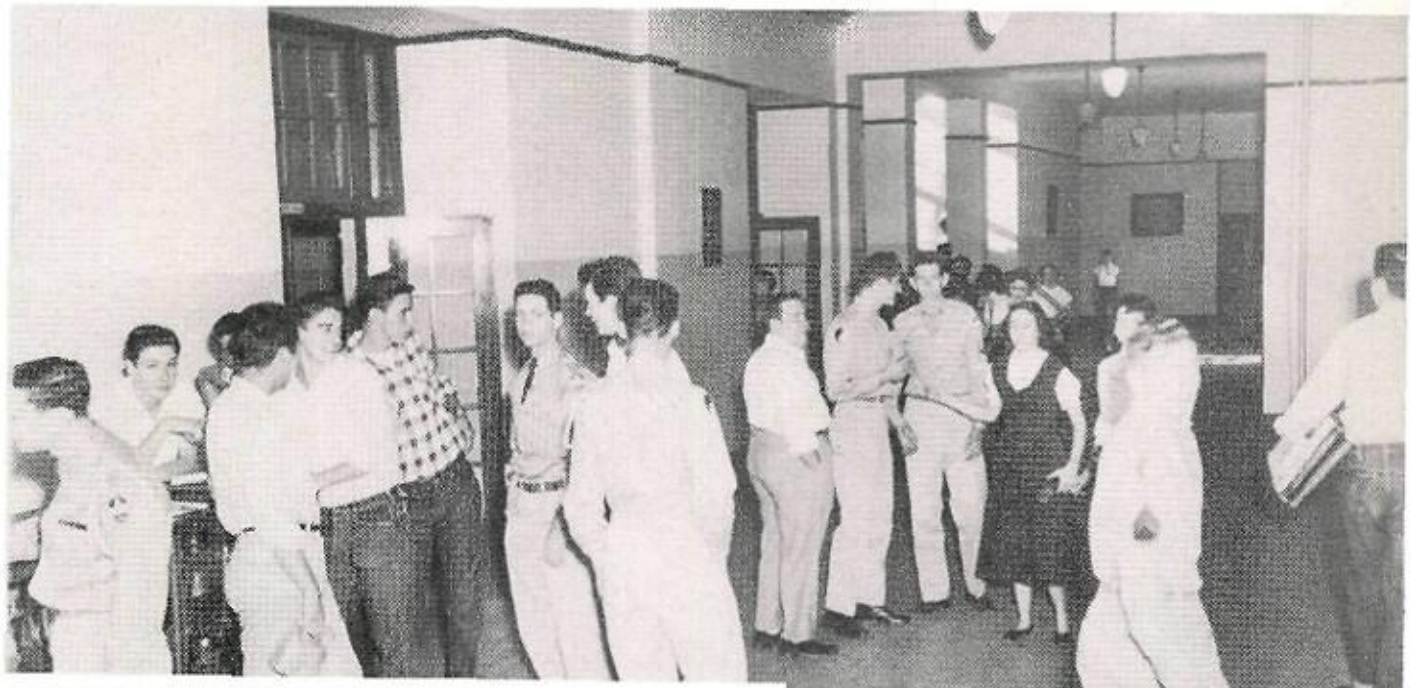




Around the Clock...



"Good morning," says Billy Daniels, Forest's unofficial doorman, to Mr. Hutchinson and Miss Felder.



It's almost 8:35 a.m. and most of the girls are still primping.

"We're on our way to the fair grounds," sing the Forester staff, showing how not to dress to have senior pictures made.

..Our School in Review

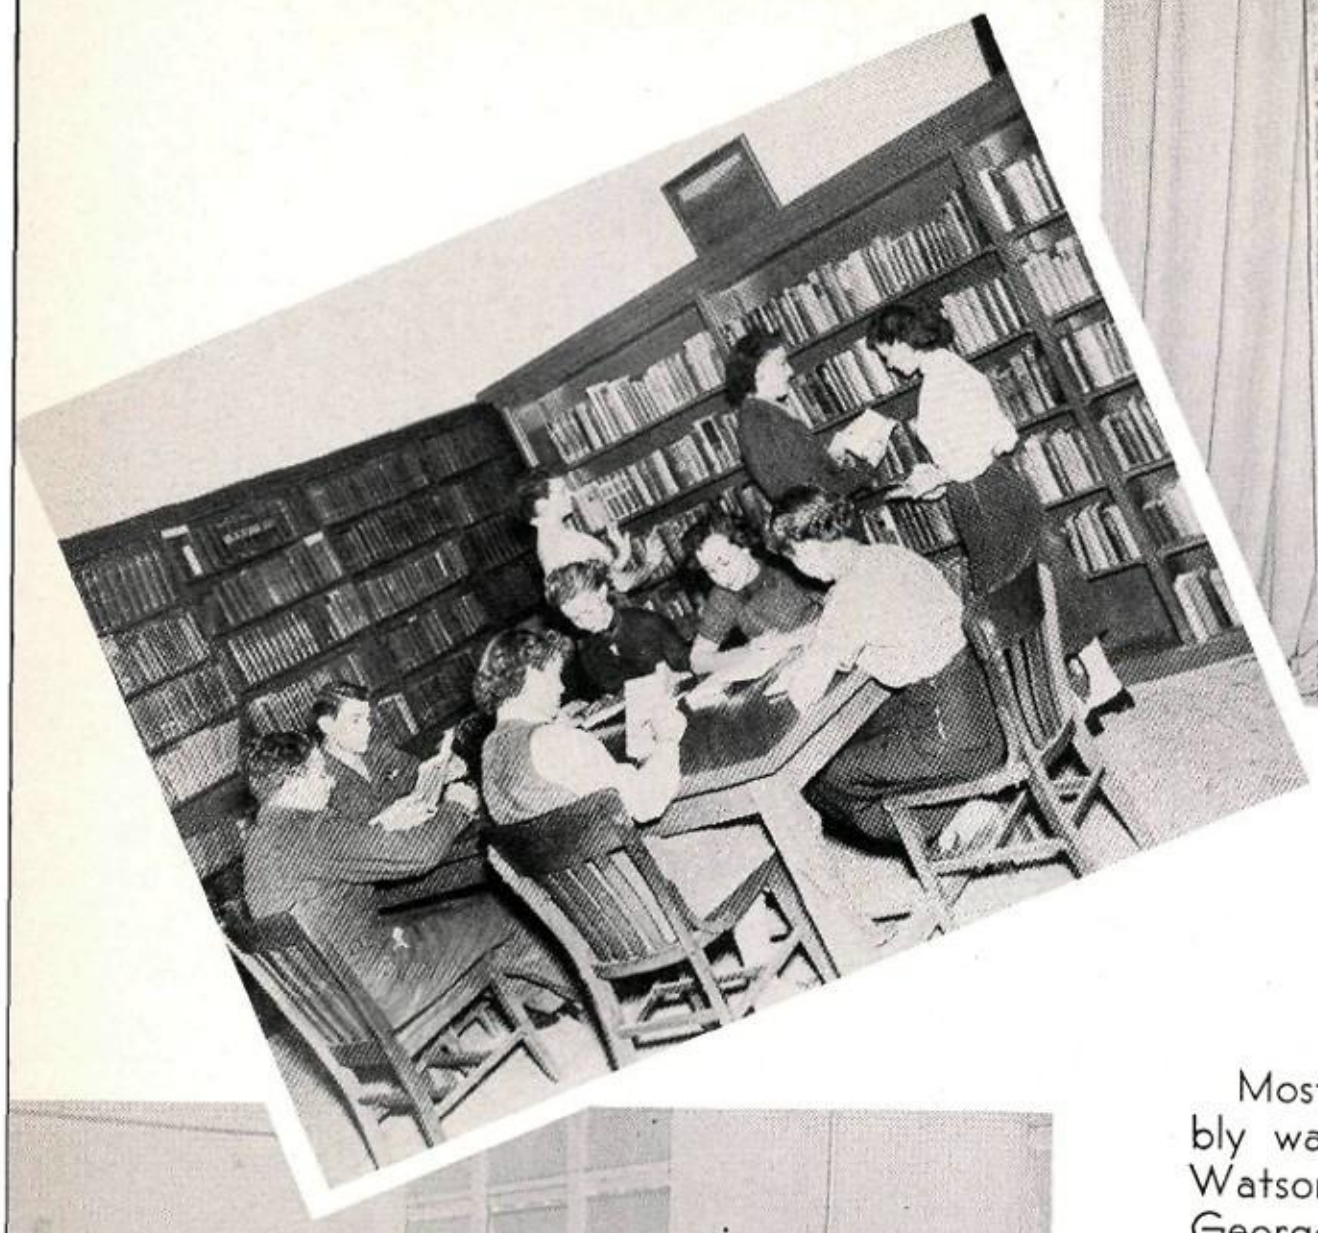
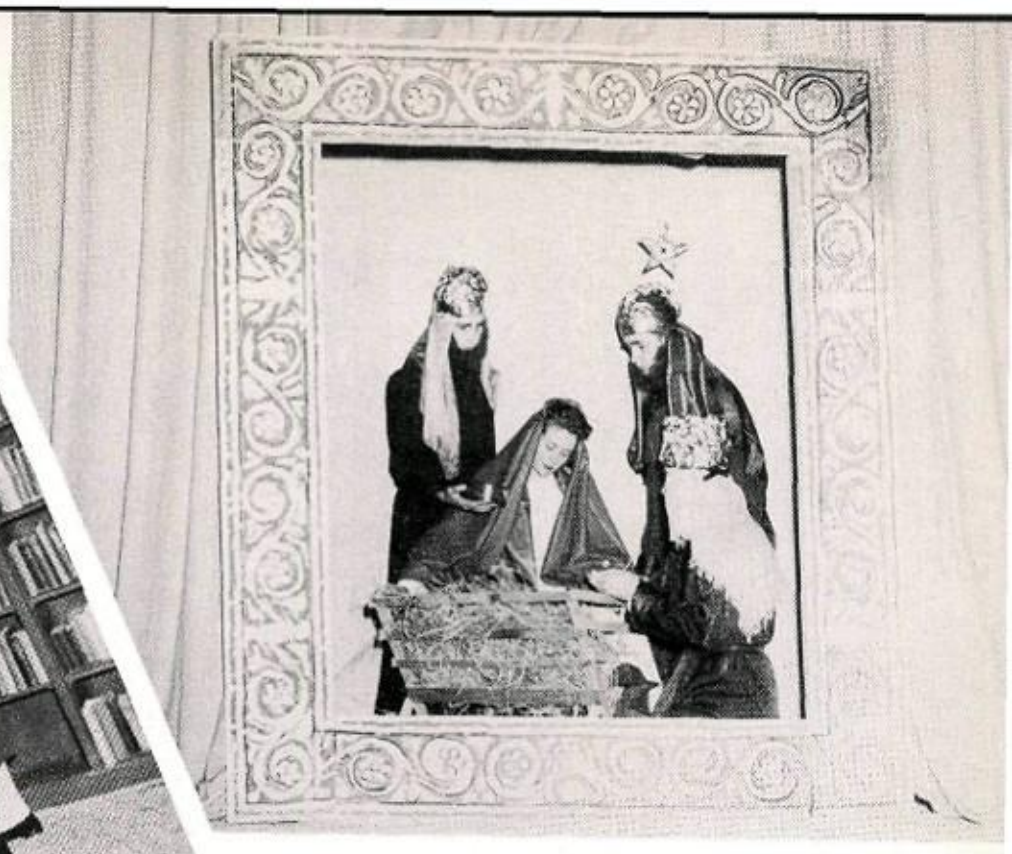
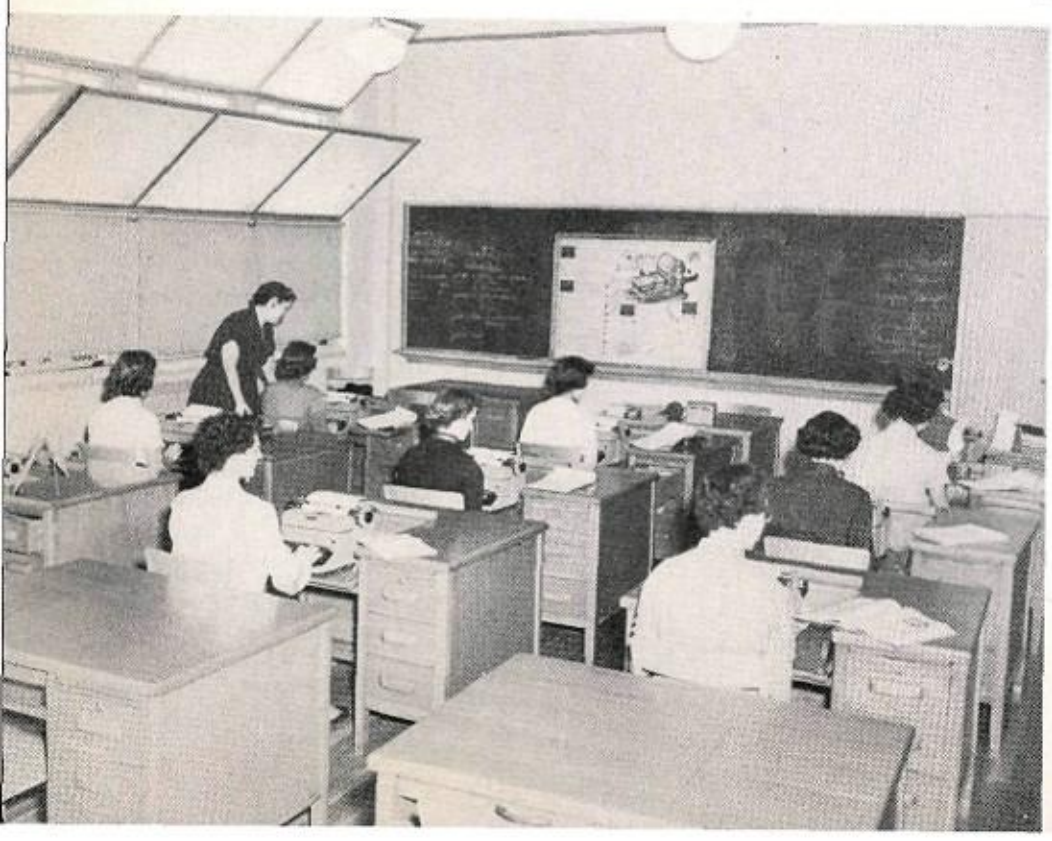
Left: They knew we we coming, so they baked us these cakes.





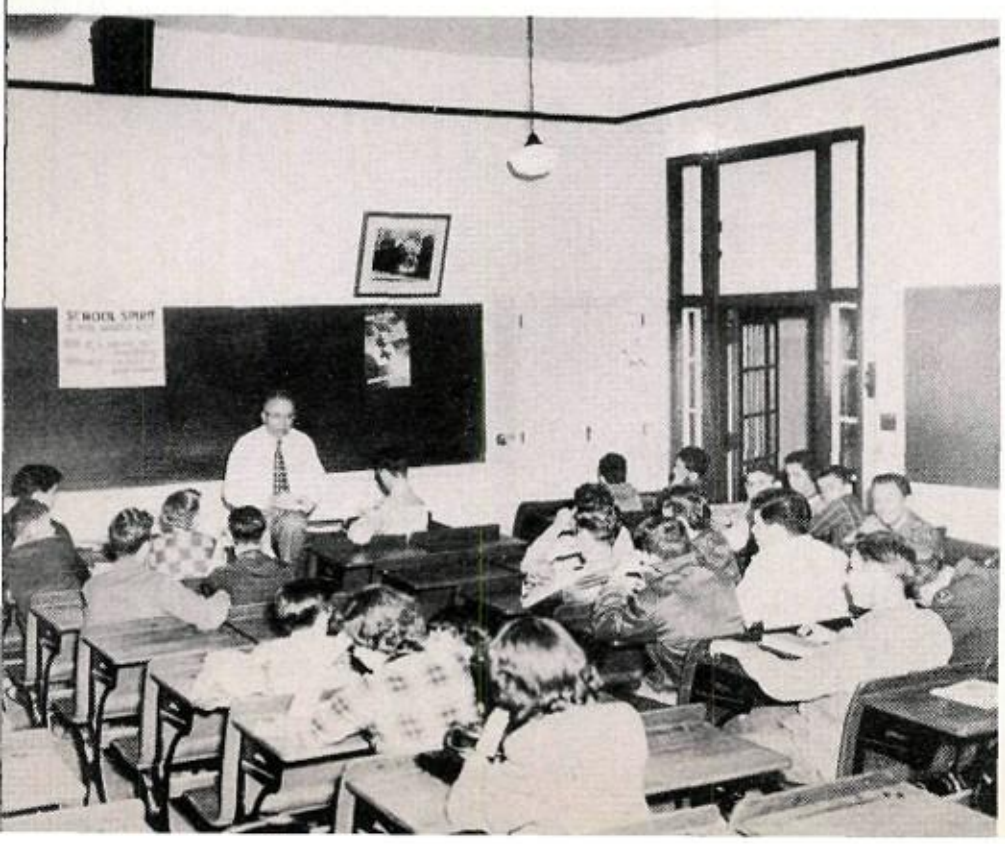
Counter Clockwise

Most impressive at the Christmas assembly was this scene portrayed by Martha Watson, John Jordan, Robert Hilborn, George Duke . . . Miss Roberts helps a student find just the right book . . . This biology class, directed by Mr. White, is perfecting the use of the microscope . . . Future secretaries work in the new office practice room . . . The students even climbed the walls to see the faculty basketball game.

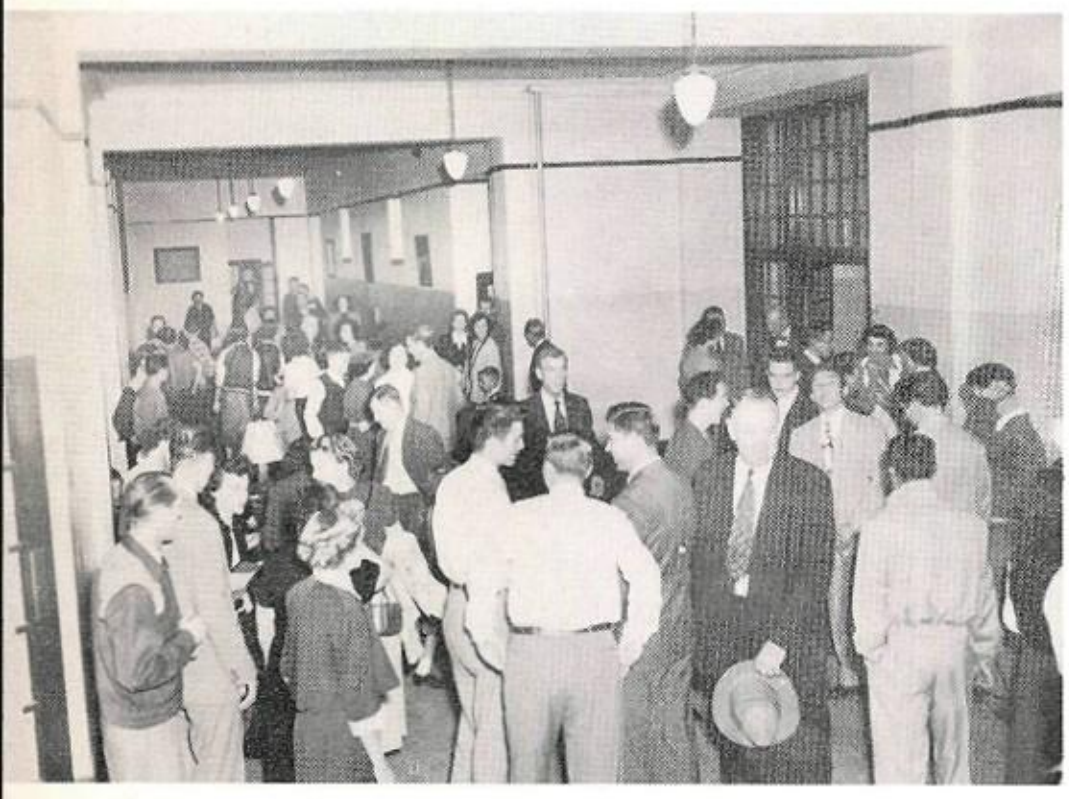


Clockwise

Mr. Beaudry calmly draws his coffee after that joke he told Mr. Frey and Mrs. Evans . . . At the microphone is Rabbi Hyman Schachtel, one of three speakers at the impressive Brotherhood Week Assembly . . . On the stage for the finale is the cast of the television show at a Junior Division assembly . . . Julia Bailey holds that deep breath for chest X-ray while Bill Matthews waits his turn . . . We do, too, have an eighth period class — sometimes called detention hall, directed by assistant principal Hutchinson.



Come See Our New House...



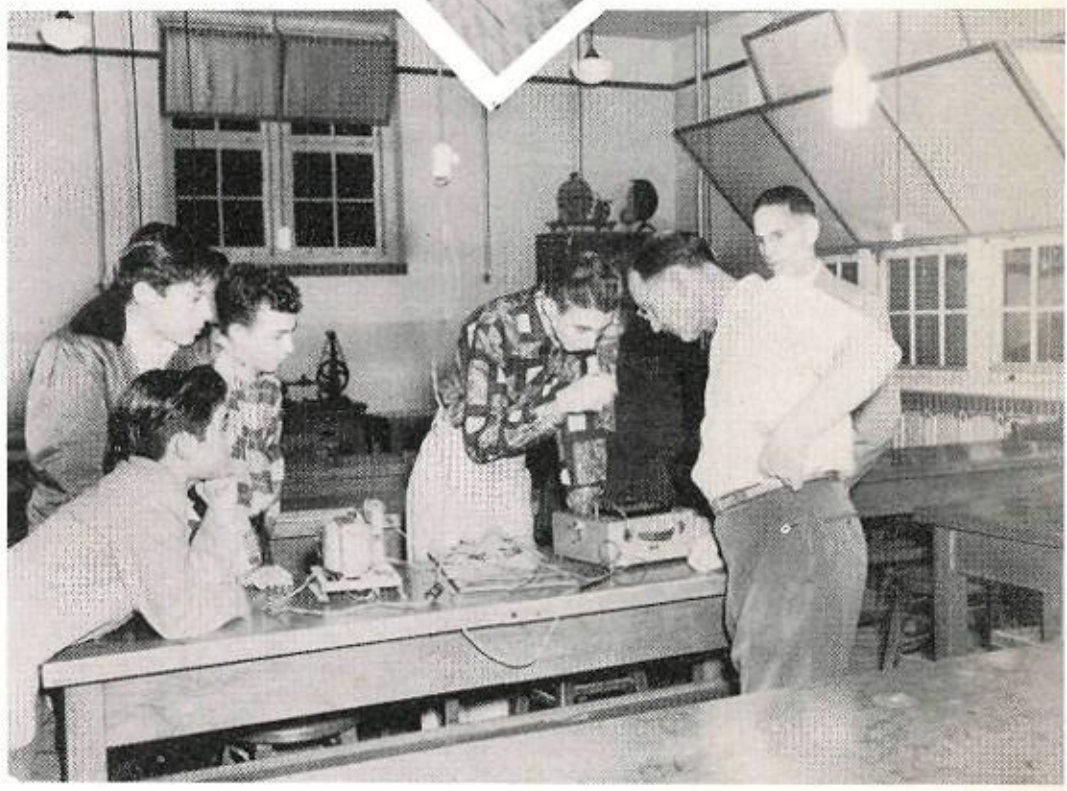
Come see our new schoolhouse,
Of which we're so proud!
We want you to visit us,
So join in with the crowd!

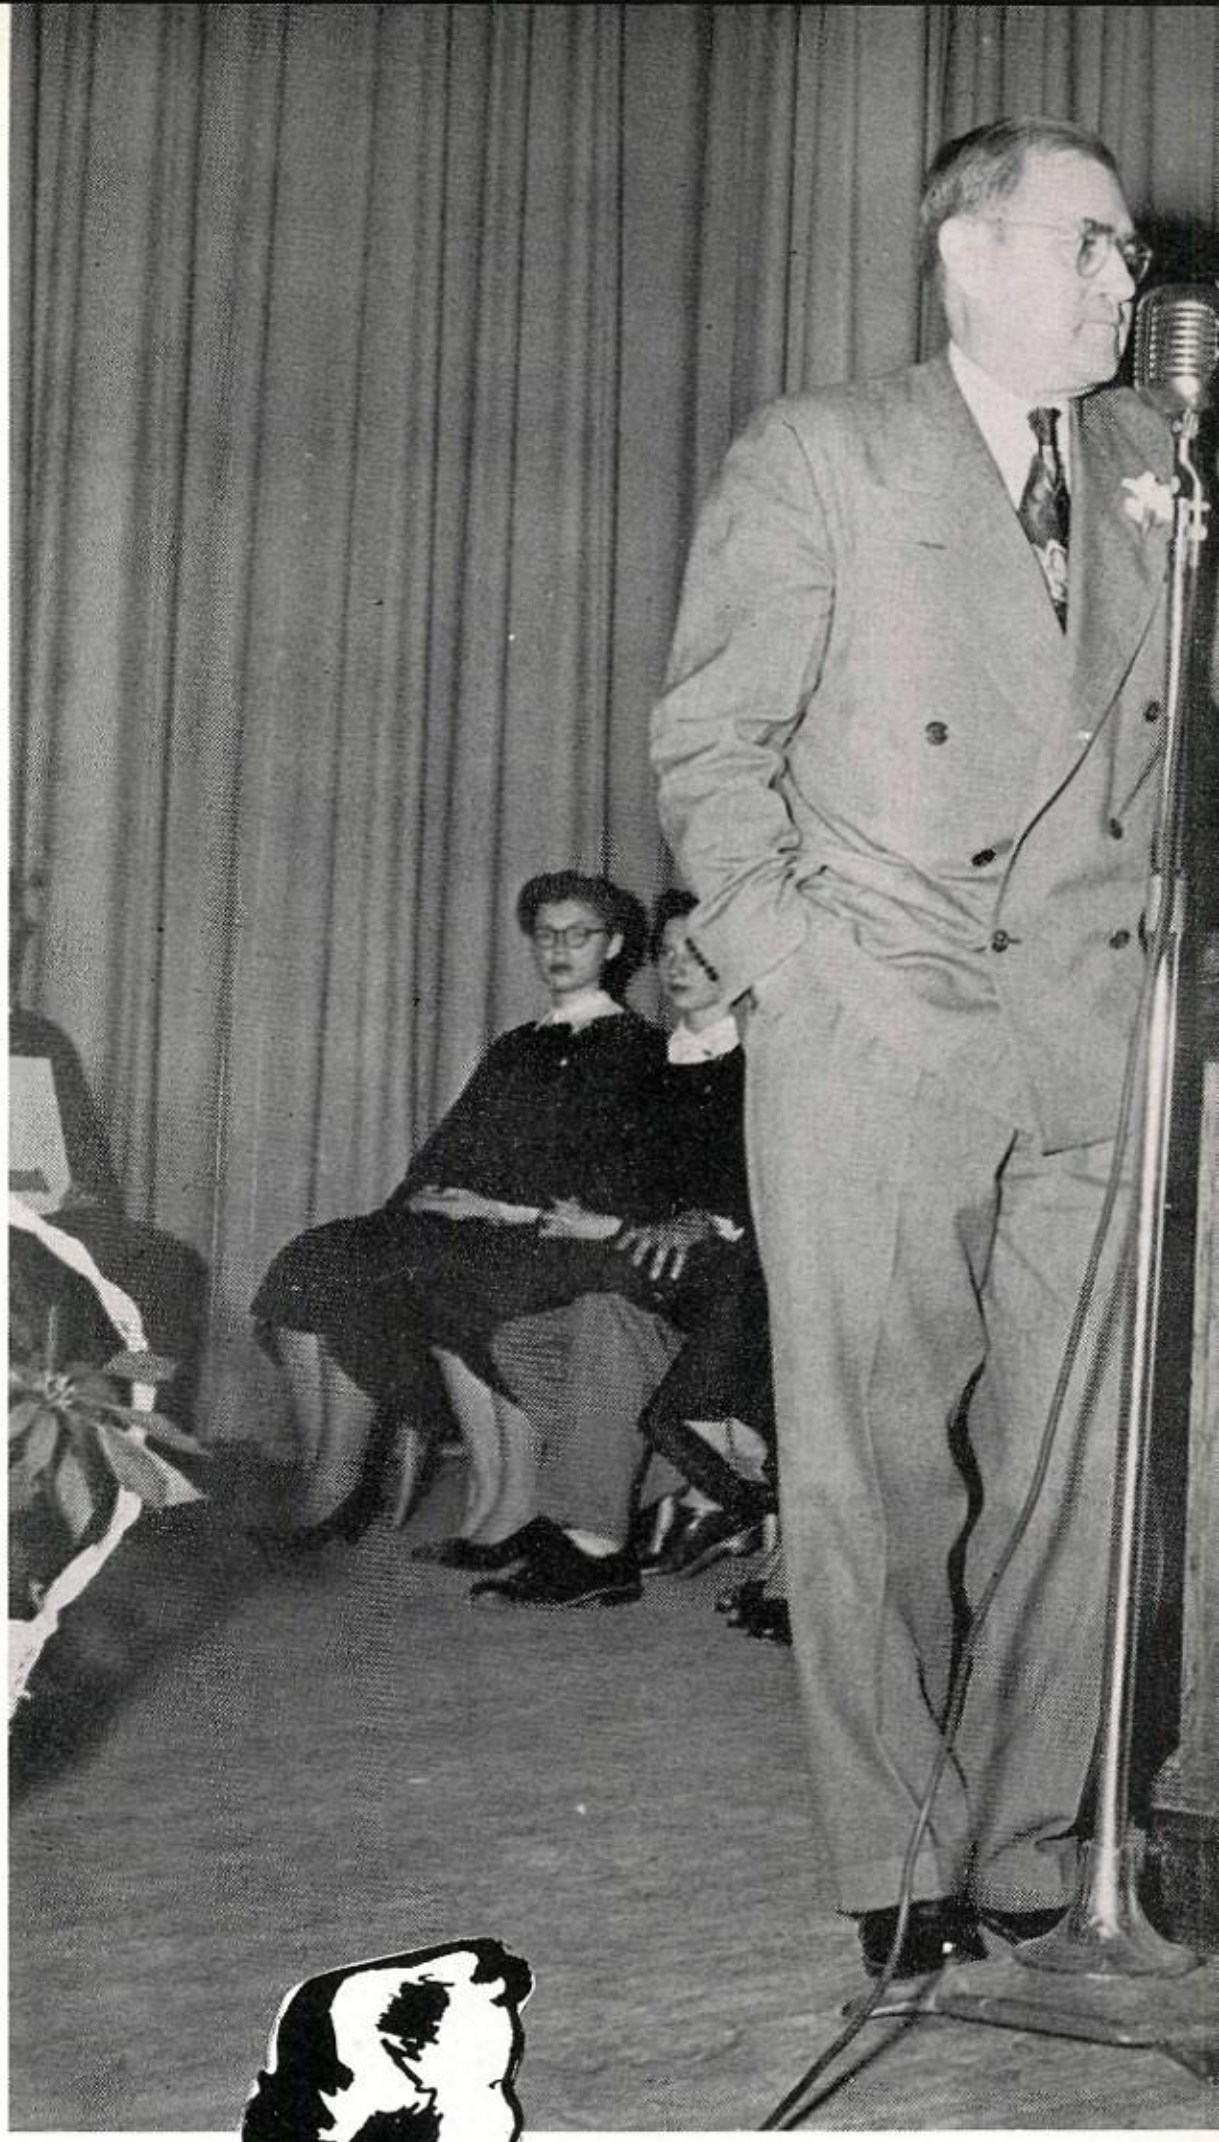
Counter Clockwise

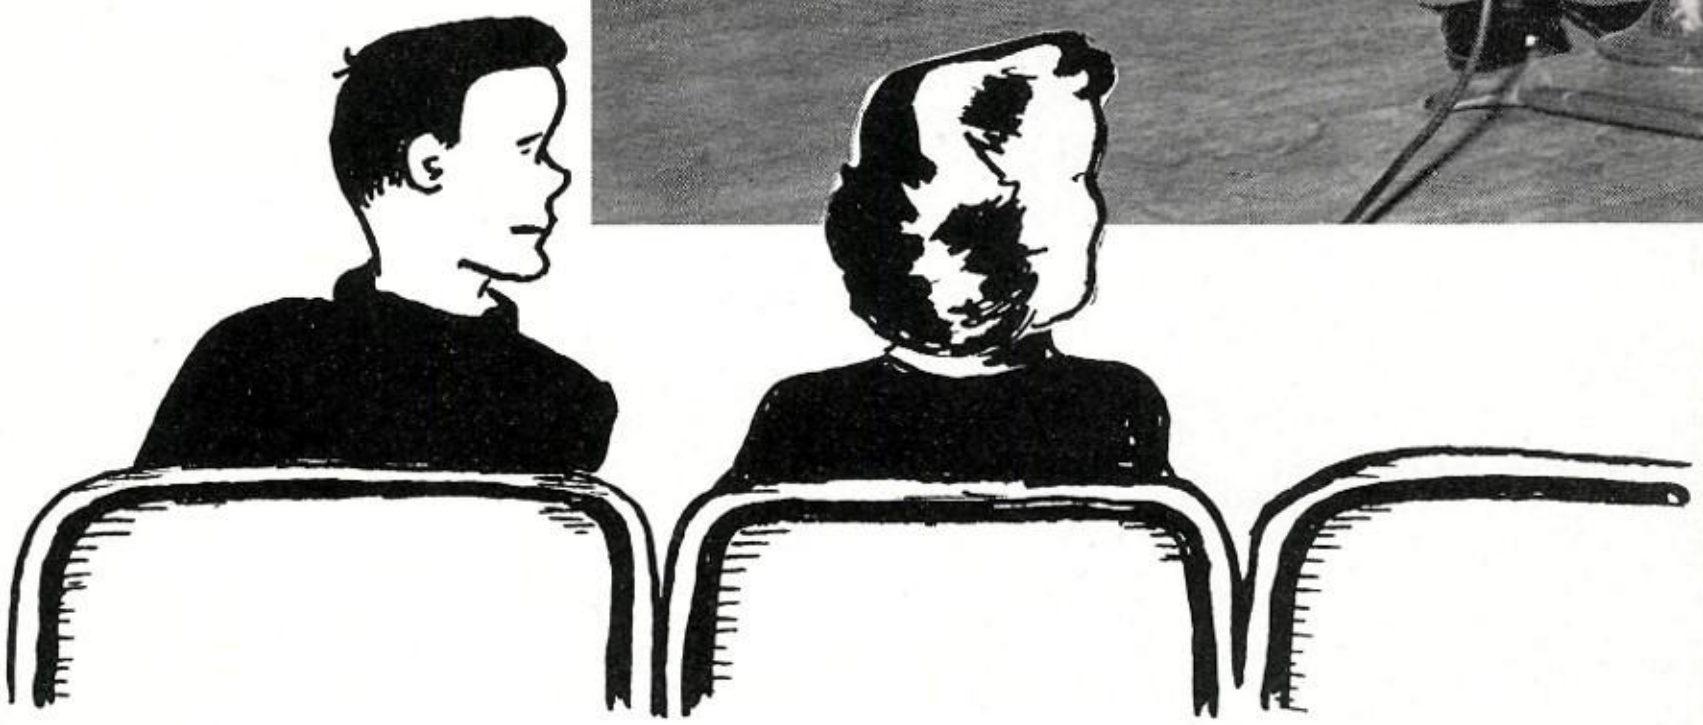
Lions greet guests in the hall . . . Miss Berry and Mrs. Griffin demonstrate a table arrangement . . . Mr. Abbott meets the parents of a Junior Division student . . . "Here's what we're learning in English," says Mr. La Borne.

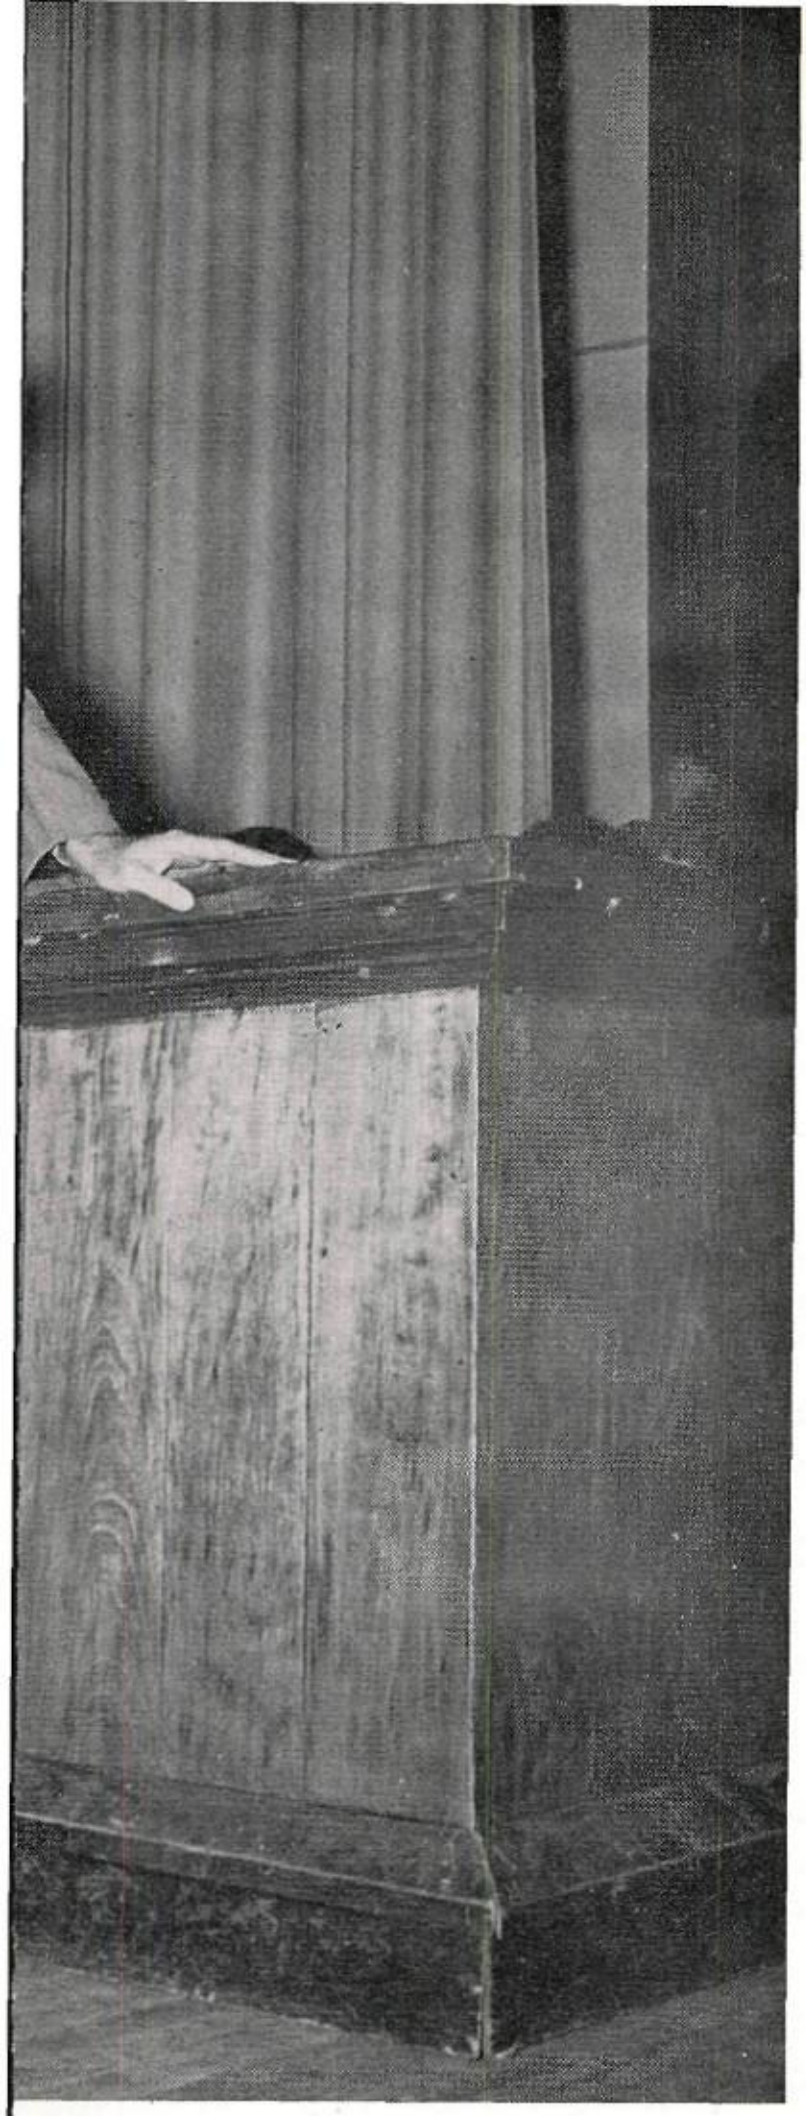
Clockwise

Sylvia Wolfe displays her talent in art . . . "I disagree," states Gladys Goldstein in a debate in the speech room . . . Charles Karlen tests Mr. Boulton's newest electrical device . . . Coach Johnson introduces the '51 football team . . . So for the wedding march Mrs. Evans played "The Eyes of Texas."









Assistant Superintendent Walker points out to Leo and Lena Junior the high qualifications of character, leadership, service, and scholarship necessary for entrance into the National Honor Society. This assembly is one of the first to impress the Junior High.

OUR PRINCIPAL

JAMES T. WHITTLESEY

Mr. Whittlesey congratulates the June '51 scholarship winners.

Forest's greatest booster urges the students to enter the Dads Club's Queen Contest.

At the faculty bulletin board Mr. Whittlesey confers with Mrs. Brown.

OUR ASSISTANT PRINCIPAL

SELDON S. HUTCHINSON

Mr. Mattingly, mathematics instructor, talks with Assistant Principal Hutchinson.

This is the early morning routine for the faculty: signing in, getting information, and telephoning.

CLASSES

It's Senior Day

The great variety of talent presented as the seniors said goodbye to Forest with their version of the daily T. V. shows ranged from singing commercials and soap-box operas to quiz programs.

Counter Clockwise

Senior class president Dink Rigsby introduces the greatest show of the year . . . "This is leap year, girls," says Hannah Goren as she shows how to dress to catch a man . . . Shirley Goldstein and Ruth Benson "Accentuate the Positive" . . . Martha Manning interviews celebrities of tomorrow: Norma Cummings, Jo Ann Moore, and Shirley Fuller.

JANUARY, 1952

Miss Eckelman directed and the Art Department, assisted by Mrs. McManus, built the novel set.

Clockwise

"Zud does everything!" claim the backers of this commercial . . . Bing Striegler puts the FORESTER out in front . . .Shirley Elliot and Etta Gray offer a hilarious romantic touch with this scene of "John and Marsha" . . . "You called me, of all people!" exclaims James Mitchell to the quiz master as Thomas White stands by for support.

H.M.S. Pinafore

As her final production at Forest, Miss Louise Wilcox directed the Music Department in the presentation of "H. M. S. Pinafore" on May 17-18, 1951 . . . The two-act operetta was fun from beginning to end, and some of the audience returned for the second performance . . . "Pinafore" brought to a brilliant conclusion the teaching career of Miss Wilcox, who has retired after serving as music director at Forest for many years.

James Mitchell holds the book as Miss Wilcox rehearses the cast.

"Please, father, don't hit Ralph . . ."

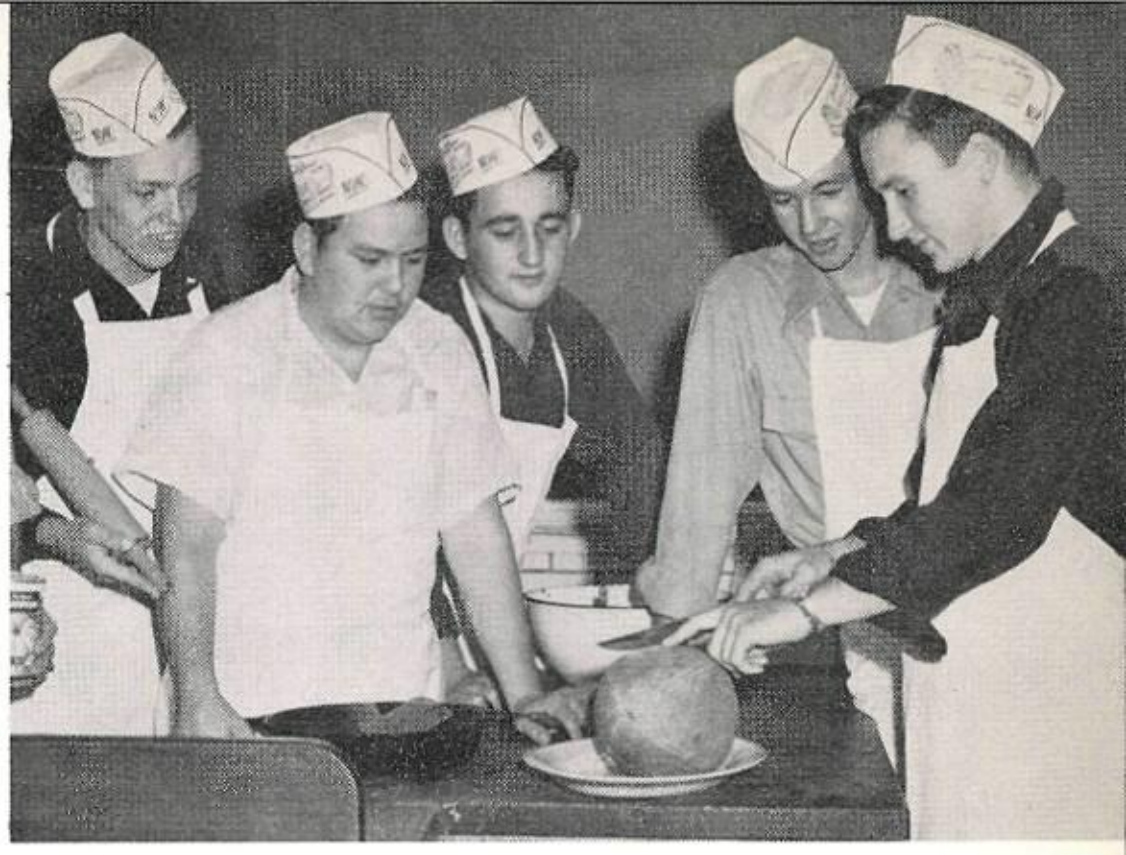
Every father must draw the line somewhere . . .

"I die for you, Josephine."

And they all lived happily ever after!

They Cook

Blue Ribbon Chefs originated in 1943 when the boys drew up a petition to form their own cooking class . . . To learn better home life, to get along with people, and to understand them are primary goals . . . But main thought is to learn to cook as they proved to the people on the television show, "Schools in Action" . . . These boys consider themselves better housekeepers than the girls and claim that their pies and cakes are "out of this world!"



BLUE RIBBON CHEFS

First row: Alvin Spoerl, Alfred Enzensperger, Harmon Simes, Mays Goza, Jay Robertson, Mart Wilson, Columbus Perdue, Lee Greenfield, Hahme Gappelberg, Abraham Prengler, Jakie Floyd, Thomas Amador.

Leo and Lena are nervously anticipating their initation into the Auditores Caesaris. They too will be sold into slavery by Leonard Wolfe just as Billy Granek is bid on by Larry Schwartz.

ORGANIZATIONS

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

"The aims of the society are high, but they are aims that we should all live by. Requirements for membership take time. It takes an A or B to start the climb," said Hannah Goren, president, at National Honor assembly in the fall. Then she explained the cornerstones which build the society. Martha Manning and Hannah Goren, January '52 class, were the only members of their class to be initiated as 3A's.

NATIONAL HONOR SOCIETY

Character, scholarship, leadership, and services symbolize the National Honor Society . . . Inspiring initiation ceremonies presented semi-annually . . . Assistant Superintendent Walker is guest speaker in fall . . . Mrs. Brown gives welcoming party for fall initiates at her home . . . Members write Citizenship Creed for Student Council . . . "Bake Day" planned in spring to raise money for service project . . . Year's activities end with picnic honoring '52 initiates.

MILITARY MAN

The Freshman learns to march and shoot,
To shine his shoes and press his suit,
To "stand up tall on his own two feet,"
Proud of himself so clean and neat.

The Sophomore learns to read the maps,
To lead a squad, and then perhaps,
If he has time, he can be seen
Trying to make the rifle team.

With many medals on his chest,
The Junior thinks he is the best;
When he makes sergeant of his platoon,
He thinks he's "up for a button soon."

The Senior scarcely learns at all,
He's grown so wise and oh so tall!
He struts around in Pinks and Green,
The proudest soldier to be seen.
He gives his orders so loud and firm
That all the Freshmen fret and squirm.
Full well he knows he "has it made"
When he says good-bye at the Final Parade.

1951 SEASON'S REVIEW

Forest 6—Gainesville 6

Guided by a new coach, Cecil Johnson, the Lion gridders opened the 1951 season at Gainesville, September 14, with a 6 to 6 deadlock. Gainesville took a 6-point lead in the second quarter, but the Lions came back to tie the score five minutes before the half. The ball handling of Dink Rigsby and the hard running of Clyde Bono stood out on offense. Marvin Wise and Bobby McDaniel looked impressive on defensive.

Forest 13—Polytechnical 6

Coming from behind, the Forest Lions defeated the Polytechnical Parrots of Fort Worth, 13-6, September 20, at Dal-Hi Stadium. Luther Borgeson and Bill Reinle turned in good offensive and defensive playing to spark the Lions to their first victory.

Forest 0—Highland Park 26

The Highland Park Scotties defeated the Forest eleven 26-0, at Highlander Stadium, September 28. The Lions threatened in the first period, but ran into a brick wall of defense on the Scotties' 9-yard line. Although injured and unable to play the last half, Luther Borgeson won recognition as being the best all-around player on the line.

Forest 7—Gladewater 58

Gladewater's powerful, undefeated eleven roared to a 58-7 victory over the crippled Forest Lions at Dal-Hi on October 5. Neil Williams, rated as one of the best passers in the state, completed 19 out of 35 passes for 366 yards for the Bears. Clyde Bono accounted for the Forest tally.

Forest 7—Corsicana 40

The Corsicana Tigers fielded a determined ball club in the last half to defeat the Forest Lions 40-7 at Corsicana October 12. The Lions jumped to a 7-0 lead in the first quarter and managed to hold the margin till late in the second period. Dink Rigsby showed outstanding offensive play, while Bill Reinle and Bobby Woods sparked the line.

Forest 13—North Dallas 14

In a hard fought game the Forest Lions lost their city series opener to the North Dallas Bulldogs, October 19, at the Cotton Bowl. Mays Goza and Harry Roberts led the offense for the Lions with Melvin Council, Richard Bates, and Don Brazil showing excellent defense.

Forest 7—Sunset 26

The defending State Champions, Sunset, defeated a stubborn Forest team on mud soaked Dal-Hi Field October 27. The Bisons took the lead after four minutes of play in the first quarter. On a pass from Hap Roberts to Wallace Mann, the Lions scored in the second quarter.

Forest 6—Woodrow Wilson 12

With the Lions playing their best game of the year, the Wildcats escaped with a narrow 6-point edge, at Dal-Hi November 1. The Lions outgained the city tri-champs in every department as Clyde Bono gained 128 yards behind some of the best blocking of the year. Forest had broken the 4-yard line when the game ended.

Forest 19—Crozier Tech 7

Led by the hard running of Clyde Bono and the precision blocking of a hard hitting line, the Green wave roared to a decisive 19-7 victory over the Tech Wolves at Dal-Hi November 8. Billy Dixon and Herman Finley were mainstays on defense.

Forest 14—Adamson 34

Closing the 1951 season, the Lions lost to their long-time rivals, the Adamson Leopards. Harry Roberts sneaked over from the 1-yard line for the first Lion tally and Dink Rigsby turned in a sensational 39-yard run in the last quarter for the final score. Bill Reinle's two conversions were good. In the fading minutes of the game Billy Sharp scampered 65 yards to set the Lions in scoring position, but time ran out.

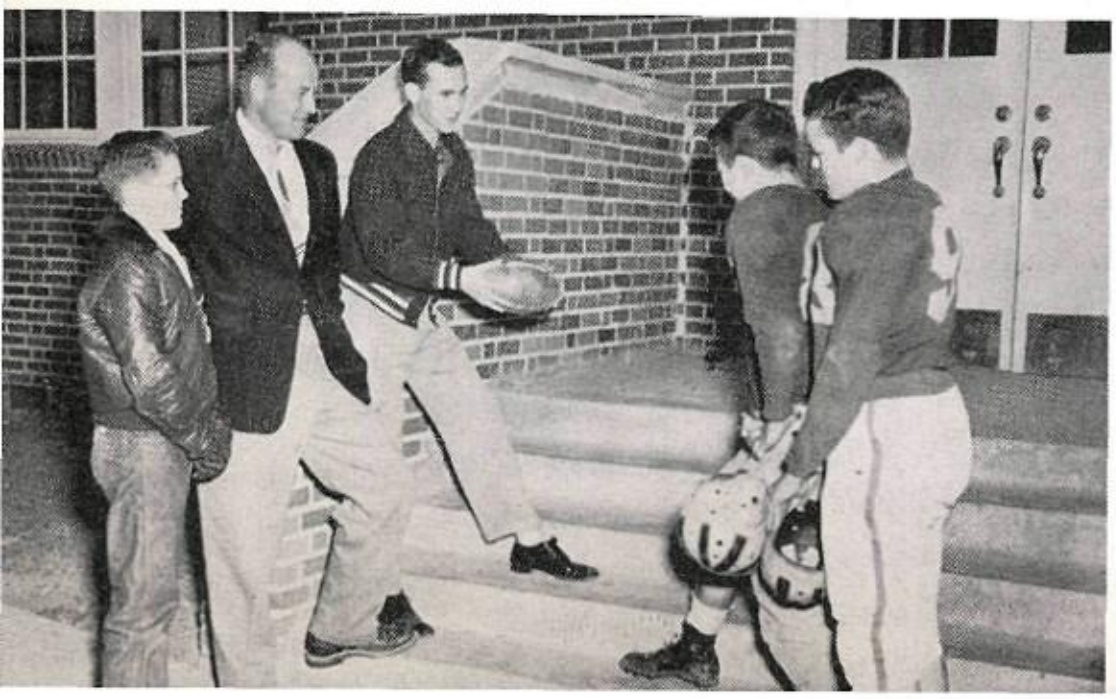
JUNIOR DIVISION FOOTBALL

Playing their first year of football, the Forest Juniors went through the season without a victory. The Cubs, after working for five games on different formations, settled to the split-T and showed more promise in losing a heartbreaker to Greiner in the closing minutes of the game, 18 to 12. Bill Holton, short and light, but powerful, was one of the top ground gainers. Don Hogue showed possibilities on both defense and offense. Hogue, a good passer, was used mostly on defense the last part of the season. Stanley Wyll, Gary Drake, Willie Wilson, and Pete Embry sparked the Cubs on defense.

Although half of the twenty-eight players will enter the Senior Division, the Cubs are banking on the experience of twelve returning lettermen for a bright 1952 season.



Coach Cameron Neal shows Captain Jackie Stranard some points on kicking as Coach Angus Cody, Manager Bobby Wesley, and Co-captain Pete Embry look on.

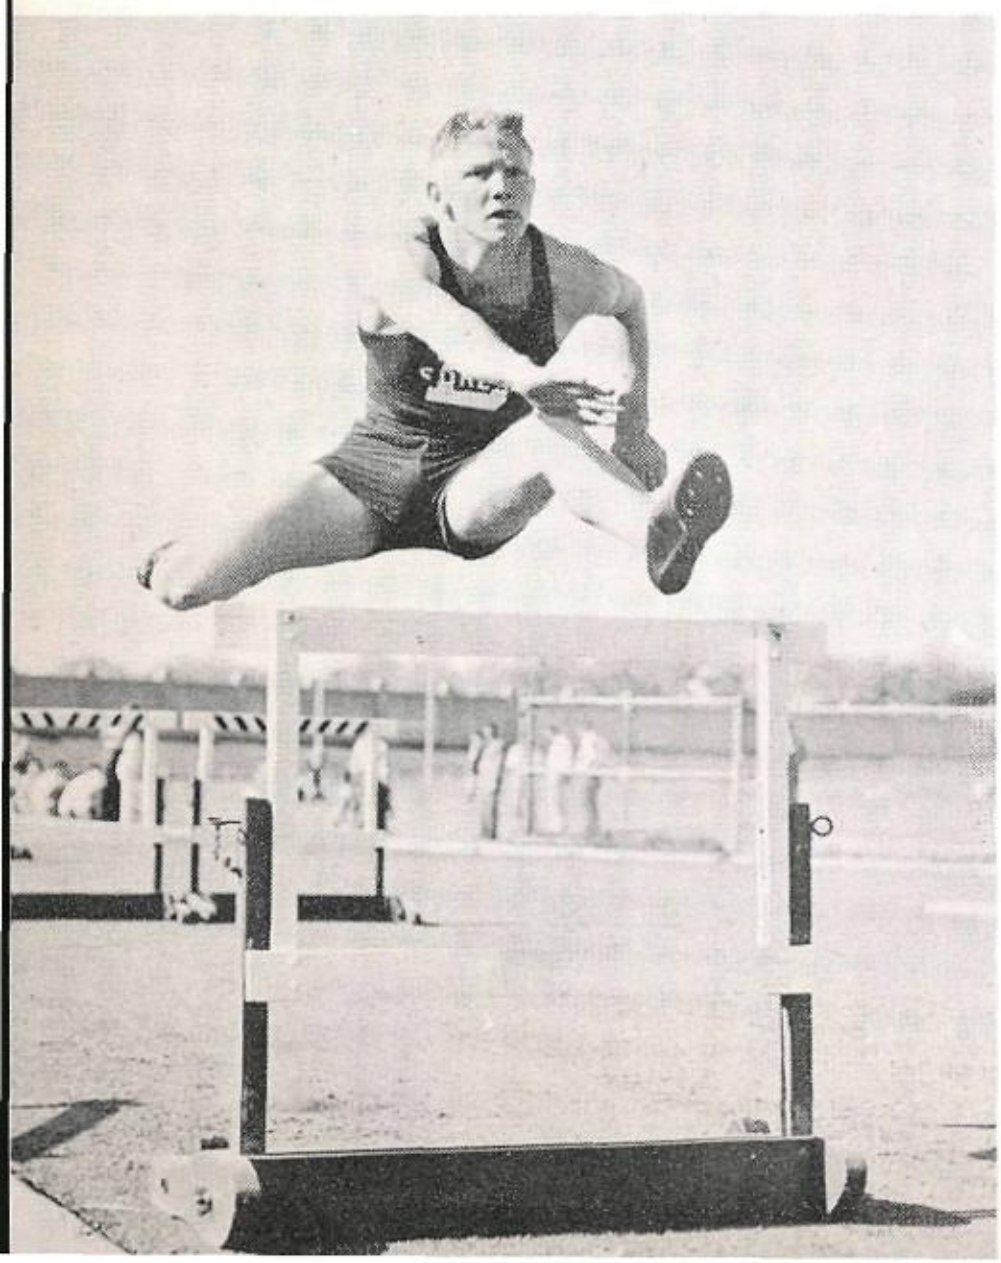
TRACK

THE TIMBER TOPPER

Weldon Glasscock displays his winning form in the 120-yard high hurdles in a triangular meet with Adamson and Woodrow.



1951 SEASON

Although small in number, the Lion tracksters managed to gain a fourth place in the city and racked up 24¾ points to gain second place in Regional.

Larry Schwartz, ace sprinter was the high man in the city with 11¾ points. Other points winners were Wallace Mann, Nathan Kaplan, Robert Walker, Jack Couch and Wayne Nance.

1952 SEASON

In the earlier meets of 1952 the Forest trackmen have shown strength in the dashes, the hurdles, the 440 and in the weights. At the Fort Wort Fat Stock Show, Larry Schwartz placed second in the 100-yard dash, while Luther Borgeson was fourth in the shot. The tracksters then journeyed to Brownwood, where they placed third in the Bluebonnet Relays. Schwartz won the 220 and placed second in the 100. Weldon Glasscock won second in the high hurdles. Luther Borgeson heaved the shot 46 feet for third place. The 440-yard relay team also placed third for a total of 17 points. The '52 tracksters will be a definite threat for the city track crown.

BASEBALL

1951

With a new coach at the helm, Forest's 1951 baseball team won five games and lost five, winding up the season in third place tie with the Sunset Bisons. The Lions were led at the plate by Don Holland, Don Truesdell, Don Wesch, Raymond Truesdell and their all-city moundsman, Bud Marshall.

1952

The Lions looked good in their 1952 pre-season games. Don Truesdell, Hap Roberts, and Jimmy Stafford led the Lions to victory over Garland, North Side of Fort Worth, and Fort Worth Tech. The Green Wave bowed to S.M.U. Freshmen 9-5. Gene Kitterman looked promising at first base as did Marvin Wise at catching. The Lions were scheduled to open the 1952 City Series with Woodrow Wilson April 7 at Riverchon Park.

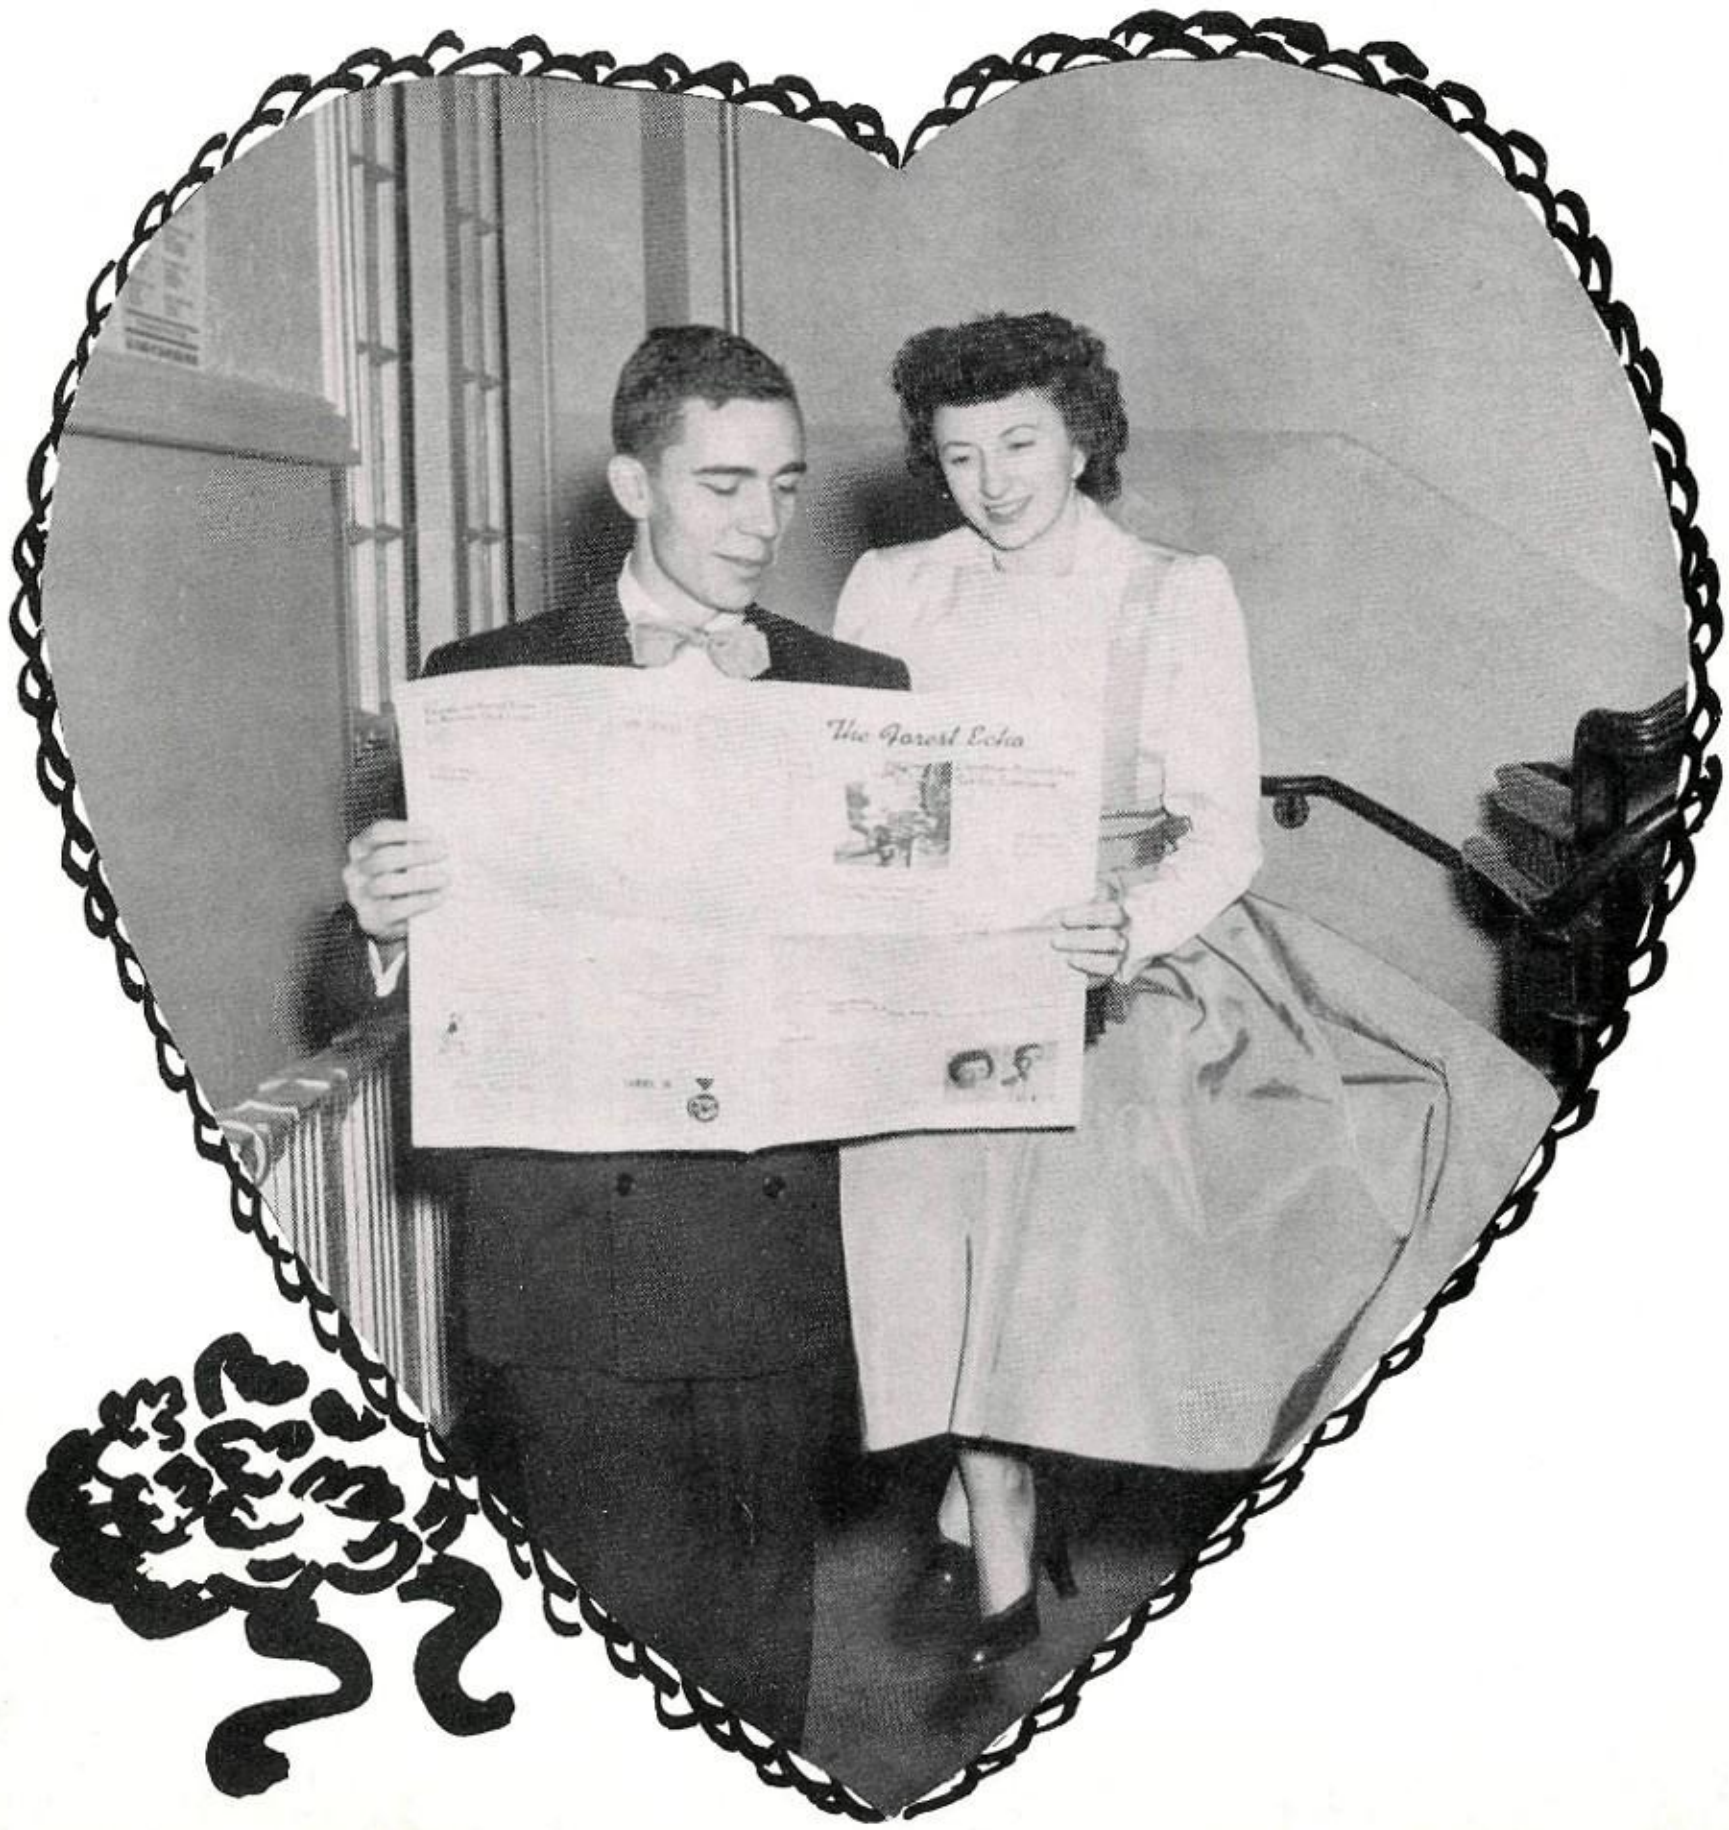
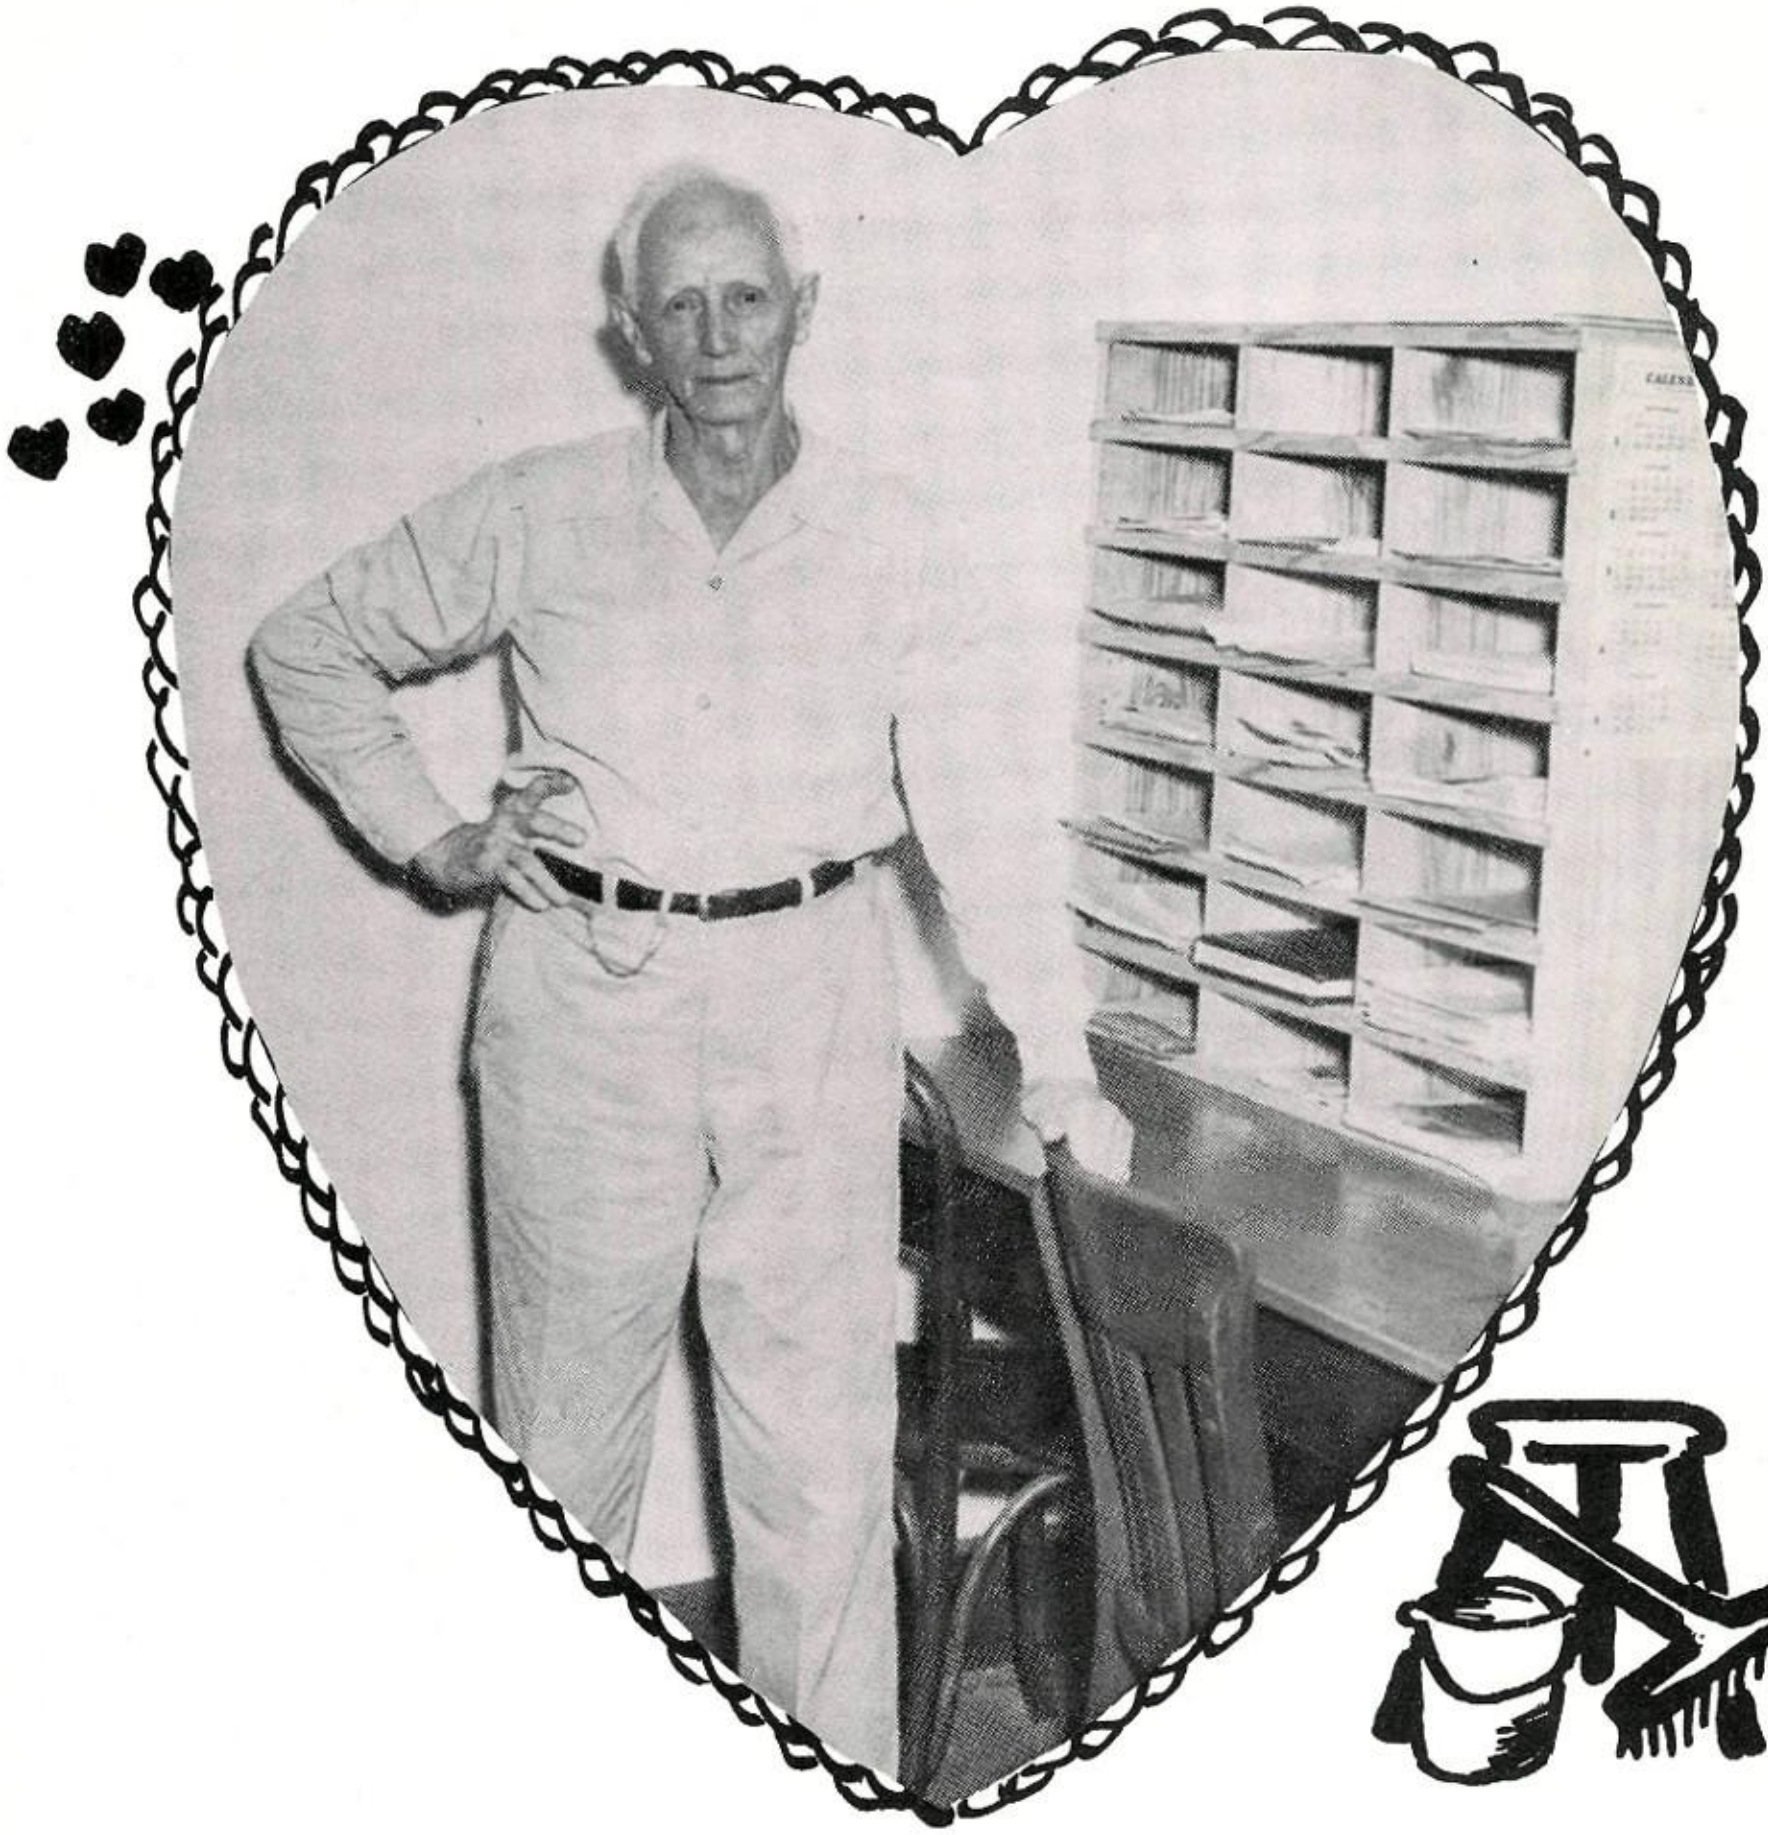
ETTA GRAY



CHARLES "COTTON" RICE



He wears every one of his seventy-six years proudly and spryly. There is always a twinkle in his blue eyes and a jest when he comes into the annual office, sometimes trying to shoo us out. We promise faithfully to turn the lights out and close the windows. He in turn faithfully replaces the light bulbs which annual staffs frequently burn out in their midnight oil burning efforts to make the deadline. That shiny new waste basket (and how we needed it!) we know is there because "Cotton" has been looking out for us. And no matter how late we work, somehow or other the next morning things look clean and neat again. And no matter how busy we are, sure and it's a welcome we're always giving to Mr. Charles "Cotton" Rice.

20---Baccalaureate Services at Forest Avenue Baptist Church.

24---January '52 Class receive diplomas in school auditorium.

25---At ease! Exams are over...End of first semester!

1951-52 CALENDAR

F E B R U A R Y

5---Watch those patricians race to the annual Slave Auction put on by Auditores Caesaris.

6---Jimmy Stafford gets the gavel, not on his head, as he takes over as 4A class president from Dink Rigsby.

7---Bang! That's just another shot coming from the armory, where some of the leading marksmen of the nation practice.

9---Lions find a good excuse for staying out late: The Dads Club gives a midnight show at the White Theater.

12---Eleven outstanding cadets receive honor wreaths.

13---Dear Cupid Edition of Echo out today.

14---Bring your beau to the Valentine Dance.
This is Leap Year, girls, so hold on to him.

15---The athletes go to town on the fine barbecue at the Athletic Banquet sponsored by the Dads Club.

16---Obie Joe Draper is momentarily a housewife on the TV show "Our Public Schools at Work" put on by the Home Ec. Department.

20---Speakers of three faiths tell us to "love your neighbor" in Brotherhood Assembly.

26---Girls get set as lettermen receive their jackets.

28---Leap Year Dance--let's go, girls!

M A R C H

5---Sgt. Andress, Soldier of the Year in 1951, European Occupation Forces, comes to instruct in the Military Department.

6---Double treat for students by the American Male Chorus and program presented by the Texas History Club.

13---BIG AUCTION OF THE SENIOR BOYS! Billy Don Forte sings his way to top price of $7.50.

26---Foresters turn out in full force to see the One-Act Interscholastic Play. The acting and the direction were superb.

27---Forest Choir sings at Veterans Hospital in Lisbon. Mrs. Evans wins applause with her musical skits.

31---The big question today is what Career Clinic sessions to attend.

SPRING SEMESTER

A P R I L

1---You can play any jokes you want today..."April Fools!"....
Foresters learn "what to wear" at Sears-Roebuck style show.

2---The Reverend Terrell and his wife talk about marriage to the Juniors and Seniors..."Echo" promotion dance in gym.

3---Mr. Robert Dedman speaks on the spiritual aspects of business.

4---Dallas Historical Society gives banquet...Forest track boys go to Austin for the Texas Relays.

7---"Take me out to the ball game," and let's wallop those Wildcats!

10---Mr. and Mrs. Fix are guests at the Pan American Day Assembly.

11---Cinderella Drive-In is the scene of the Senior Class' Midnight Show...Grab your Easter Bonnets! School is out 'til Tuesday!

14---Pan American Banquet is held at the Baker Hotel.

25---Get your date and let's go to the Senior Prom at Preston Hollow Country Club...Latin students have annual banquet at the Jefferson Hotel.

M A Y

2---Senior Play, "Men Are Like Streetcars," proves a hit.

5---Abilene High School presents chorus at assembly...
They're great!

10---Hi-Y Spring Formal Dance at Winfrey Point.

23---"Long distance, calling Senior Day"...Don't those seniors look sleek and slick today?

25---Baccalaureate Services at Temple Emanuel with Rabbi Levi Olan, speaker.

26---Exam Fever again!

30---Graduation exercises at First Methodist Church...Watch those 139 Foresters in cap and gown as they receive their diplomas...And so goodby till next September.
SCHOOL'S OUT!
